

Dry and Thirsty Land

(March 31, 2015)

For I have called you to go to the nations

Speak life to the drying thirsty land.

Call forth streams of living water & pools of refreshing.

Magnify My name throughout the earth!

Exercise your faith for divinely inspired utterance.

Reap a harvest if you faint not!

The sword of the Spirit will get you through!

Pull the sword from the rock!

Fight fight fight the demonic realm that tries to stop you and persevere through every challenge!

I shall see you through.

Jesus
