

Hearts Restored

(April 24th, 2014)

Sit quietly at My feet daughter and listen carefully to what

I'm going to tell you

There is coming a day when men's hearts will fail them for fear.

There will be tribulation in America that cannot be avoided

"It will be to the likes that this world has never seen".

But it will be "in that day"...

"The hearts of the children will be restored to the fathers and the father's hearts to their children".

For I will pour out My mercy and My spirit shall consume them.

And they will come to know Me as Father

I the Lord have spoken

NOTE: This is not "THE" tribulation discussed here
