

The Lord said...

"Kamikaze"

So I looked up the definition...

The Kamikaze (神風[?], literally: "Spirit wind"; common translation: "Divine wind")

"God wind, Divine wind, East Wind"

Tell My people...

I will be with you in battle and you will be fearless.

The water is deep.

You shall run and not grow weary.

Fear not... for the battle is mine for I am with you.

I am mighty to save.

Run your race with endurance for I will guide each step...

"Kamikaze."
