

One Step at a Time

(May 9th, 2015)

Step forward in the darkness and reach out and take My hand.

For I will guide thee and I will keep thee...
as your destiny and calling is at hand.

One step at a time My child.

Listen for the still small voice that is the authority in your life.

You are planted firmly on the Rock.

Your destiny awaits you My little one.

Precious pearls of wisdom downloaded to you over time will bring forth much fruit.

Awake Awake My beautiful one... to your new life in Me!
