

To Catch a Falling Star

(Spoken May 20th, 2015)

Moral turpitude is at an all-time high.

It is a disgrace to those who stand for truth...
and I'm going to do something about it.

You can count on it!

Everything that is hidden will come to light.

The race is on to catch a falling star.

The time has come to sequester you in holiness.

There will be a ruthless pursuit by the enemy

But I've purposed that you will land on solid ground.