

Warrior Confession

(PSALM 89; PASSION TRANSLATION)

The Lord has chosen me as his loving servant and exalted me.

He has anointed me as a gate-keeping warrior with the oil of His Holiness &

He will be strength to me.

He will give me His grace to sustain me no matter what comes.

None of my enemies will get the best of me.

Nor will the wicked one overpower me.

For the Lord will crush my adversaries and do away with all those who hate me.

Because he loves me and treasures me...

His faithfulness will always protect me.

He will place great favor upon me.

He will cause Christ's power and fame "through me"...

To increase.
